Don't be afraid of brushing it too much, writes a Boston Globe contributor.

The more you brush the more gloss you get. If your eyelrows are thin brush those, too, with a tiny brush, and if they don't curve to suit you get a tiny comb and train them in whichever direction you wish them to go. Brushing keeps them in good shace, and it is so much easier to brush than to trim them. Besides, if you do not understand how to trim them properly you are ant to look funny until they grow out again.

I have just taken four moles from my face and it is very badly done. You can do it yourself, only be careful, for it burns.

Get five cents' worth of muriatic acid and three times a day, touch the mole with a toothpick dipped into the acid. It will come off in about a week, leaving a red spot on the face. Leave that spot alone and it will heal by itself.

They say 'moles are a sign of beauty,' but I prefer the beauty without the

SKIPPED A COG SOMEHOW.

A Farmer's Hired Man Tries Three-Card Monte with Poor Success. I was waiting at the railroad depot at Cairo, Iil., and fell in with a young farmer and had quite a lengthy chat with him about agricultural matters, says a writer in the Indianapolis Acres. We took the same train and got into the amoker, and we had scarcely left Cairo when a young man sat down in the sext facing us and legan throwing three cards about. It was the old, old game, and I about. It was the samiled in contempt.

He was at once interested, and when I lenounced the game as a swindle he replied : Well, I dunno about that. I believe I kin pick out that keerd. It wasn't three minutes before he bet $5 that he could, and won. Then he bet $10 and won. Then he bet $10 and won. won.
"You were born lucky," said the sharper. "Don't you want to raise your

Not so with my acquaintance, however,

"I guess so. I'll go you $75 this time."
I's pected to see him lose, of course, but he won, and as he did so the other uttered an oath about a rod long and put loss he was greatly perup the cards. I saw he was greatly per-turbed and said:

"What's the matter, old man?"
"That's what I'd like to know myself," he angrily exclaimed. "I'm no professional: I'm a farmer's hired man. About
